“TLC Continues Efforts to Expand Support of Local Communities”

February 14, 2012 - Cleveland, OH - In effort to continue to support our local communities, TLC Springwater is proud to be a sponsor of the 2012 DISTRICT, DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING (MLK) JR. ORATORICAL CONTEST. This year's event hosted by Mt. Zion Oakwood Village will be held on February 25, 2012. TLC Springwater will provide complimentary bottled water to all attendees at the event.

Each year, students in Cuyahoga County are invited to participate in the countywide contest, which is held in honor of the legacy of Dr. King. The 2012 theme is “Remember, Celebrate, Act! A Mission Still to Fulfill.” This year, Cuyahoga County expects approximately 50 students in grades K-12 to participate in this special tribute to Dr. King. Students will deliver five minutes speeches to a panel of judges and are encouraged to discuss topics they feel align with this year's theme. The top three finalists from the region will advance to the State contest in Columbus, Ohio.

“TLC Springwater believes strongly in our community and in supporting worthwhile charitable events.” said Kazell Pugh, TLC President. “We are especially pleased to be part of this important day. It is particularly important to create opportunities for our young people that stimulate thinking and learning. The MLK event inspires our students to imagine and explore how the legendary Dr. King would feel about our society's progress to remove prejudices against race in the 21st Century.”
